

WORLD STATISTICS DAY CELEBRATION IN MYANMAR

(20-10-2010)

The Central Statistical Organization (CSO) of the Ministry of National Planning and Economic Development will organize the following activities to make the World Statistics Day:

- Organize a one-day Seminar on Celebration of World Statistics Day opening address by Minister, Ministry of National Planning and Economic Development.
- 100 participants from Statistics Department in line ministries, UN Country Agencies, international organizations, universities. Venue: Office No. (1) Nay Pyi Taw.
- Resident Coordinator of United Nations will read the UN Secretary-General's message for WSD in the ceremony.
- Address the statement on important of statistics by Representative of United Nations Population Fund.
- Organize along with the seminar on
 - Development of Published Official Statistics Presentation by Central Statistical Organization
 - The Surveys currently being implemented at Planning Department Presentation by Planning Department
 - Towards Strengthening Capacity for Data Collection, Analysis and Dissemination for Strategic planning, Programming and Monitoring-Evaluation Presentation by United Nations Population Fund
 - National Statistical System of Agricultural Statistics Presentation by Settlement and Land Records Department
 - Capacity Building for Statisticians in Myanmar Presentation by Yangon Institute of Economics
- Inform the public through CSO website.

<http://www.csostat.gov.mm/>