

World Statistics Day
20.10.2010

Celebrating the many achievements of official statistics

Statistics Serbia welcomes the initiative and joins the celebration of World statistics Day as a chance to raise awareness of the importance of official statistics and to highlight their key role in society.

Activities planned:

- Inform the public and stakeholders about the World Statistics Day through internet – www.stat.gov.rs where the WSD logo and suitable information will be placed on
- Publish a press-release with which will be sent to all Media representatives (TV, newspapers and local media providers)
