

WORLD STATISTICS DAY

On October 20, 2010, World Statistics Day, the Spanish National Statistics Institute (INE) is preparing multiple events to inform the public of the importance of Official Statistics and the type of work INE conducts.

- Institutional act will be performed with two lectures by relevant professors.
- Exhibition about statistical graphs from ancient publications of our library.
- Special section on our website dedicated to the celebration of the World Statistics Day since October 1st.
- Open house day with scholars visits.
- Joint press release with Eurostat and the rest of members of the European Statistical System
- Special issues from the collections Cifras INE and Revista Índice

In coincidence with this day, we are planning to launch our statistical literacy portal.

The Andalusian Statistical Institute (a Spanish regional statistical institute) is planning to celebrate WSD on 20/10/2010 by holding a conference about "Statistics and Media".
