STATISTICS DEPARTMENT

Press Release

20.10.2010
World Statistics

The United Nations Statistics Division, International Agencies and all Statistics Offices in the world have unanimously agreed to mark the 20 October 2010 (20.10.2010) as WORLD STATISTICS DAY for the first time ever. The main purpose of the Day is to celebrate the many achievements in Statistics. The UNSD has distributed the posters to mark the WORLD STATISTICS DAY to statistics offices in the world included the Statistics Department here in Tonga. Similarly, all statistics offices in the world were invited to send their posters and how they mark this WSD to the UNSD, such that these can be viewed in the UNSD website; unstats.un.org/unsd/wsd;

Hence, the Statistics Department here in Tonga is pleased to join in marking this WORLD STATISTICS DAY, 20.10.2010 by releasing the report of the Household Income and Expenditure Survey 2009, together with other statistical bulletins to the Cabinet Ministers. Press releases of these statistics have dispatched to the media.
