

World Statistics Day in Bhutan

The National Statistics Bureau, Bhutan is celebrating the World Statistics Day with a daylong programme with the theme: The role of statistics towards supporting evidence-based decision-making in the country.

The programme includes:

- a presentation to the senior level data users and policy makers in the country
- launch of a report titled: Small Area Estimation of Poverty in Rural Bhutan
- launch of Bhutan 2010 Data Sheet titled: Population and Development Indicators-Bhutan 2010 Data Sheet, and
- a Question and Answer session to create awareness among the data users

Bhutan, 19 October 2010